Scott E. Galbreath is a partner in the transactional practice group at Shaheen, Novoselsky, Staat, Filipowski & Eccleston, P.C. with a concentration in employee benefits for which he is recognized as an Illinois Leading Lawyer. He has over 20 years experience representing closely held businesses and owners in employee benefits and executive compensation as well as general business transactions, estate planning, and tax. Scott counsels clients on choosing appropriate retirement, deferred compensation, and other benefit plans; ERISA and Internal Revenue Code compliance, including new Section 409A; investments, prohibited transactions and fiduciary duties; and drafting plan documents and correcting plans.

He is a frequent speaker, regularly speaking for such organizations as the Chicago Bar Association, Lorman Education Services, and the National Business Institute. He has written numerous articles and was a principal author of the Chicago Bar Association's comments to the IRS on guidance under new Code Section 409A regarding new requirements for nonqualified deferred compensation plans.

Scott has served as the chair of the Chicago Bar Association's Trade and Professional Associations Law Committee and the Exempt Organizations Division of the Association's Taxation Committee, and Chair of the Employee Benefits Committee's ERISA Executive Compensation Subcommittee. He is currently the Chair of the CBA Employee Benefits Committee's Executive Compensation Subcommittee.

Scott earned his J.D. and Masters of Law in Taxation with honors from IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law where he was a recipient of the school's "Bar and Gavel Award."
